Old Business

- Youth Football
- Scores & Incident Reports – Scores have been submitted to Tammie. U10 East Point had a player ejected for unsportsman like conduct and will have to sit out the game this week. 2 weeks ago there was an ejection of a player from East Point and the player did not sit out the following game. The result of this will be as follows: the player will sit out the game this week, the game will be recorded as a forfeit and the Coach of the U10 East Point team will be suspended for the game this week.
- SPYFL Coaches' Challenge Update – Games will be played at Panhandle and Flat Shoals, schedules will be released this week.
- Falcons Youth Clinic Update – Over 400 kids participated in the clinic despite the weather on Monday. The clinic was a great success and the Falcons handed out t-shirts and book bags at the end of the clinic.
- Playoffs Schedule – Schedules have been created and will be released showing venues and possible scenarios for matchups.
- Youth Cheerleading Competition Update – All arrangements are in place for the competition.
- Youth Soccer:
- Field Renovation Update – Fields are looking and will be ready for the tournaments.
- D2/D3 Tournament – President's Cup will be played on November 7 & 8 and will carry over to the following weekend for Championship play.
- Youth Basketball:
- Uniform Order Update – Uniform upgrades will take place next year. The uniform order will be submitted by Thursday.
- Registration – Locations are as follows: Virginia Gray, Carl Rhodenizer, South Clayton and Jim Huie.

New Business

- NAYS Chapter – Clayton County is now a recognized NAYS Chapter with Koboi as Chapter Director.
- Department Leadership – There are changes coming in the department, pay no attention to rumors unless you hear from Koboi.
